- Visa (if applicable)
- Letter of admission (Zulassungsbescheid) generated by C@MPUS
- Original of your certificates or certified copy (e.g. school leaving certificate, Bachelor’s certificate and transcript, language certificates).

Visa

Entry visa-free	Visa required
Citizens of the EU do NOT need a visa to enter Germany. Citizens of Australia, Brazil, Canada, GB, Japan, South Korea, New Zealand, Israel and the USA can enter Germany without visa but need to apply for a residence permit upon arrival.¹ You will need: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Proof of sufficient financial means in the amount of at least EUR 934 per month (e.g. a bank statement showing the credit balance in a bank account in Germany, a blocked bank account, a declaration of financial commitment, or a proof of stipend or scholarship) 	Citizens of a non-EU country not mentioned on the left need a student visa. Please apply at the German embassy or consulate in your country of residence. Schedule an appointment as soon as possible, since visa procedures can take up to six months. The visa is usually issued for three to six months. It must be changed into a residence permit after your arrival in Germany.

¹ If you have a citizenship of a non-EU country that allows visa-free entry, you are still free to try to apply for a student visa for Germany. This way, you have more time for the currently long-lasting application process for obtaining a residence permit upon your arrival in Stuttgart. Please contact the German embassy in your country of residence for further information.

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Proof of accommodation in Germany (optional)	Check with the German embassy office which additional documents you need. This might vary from country to country. ²
Please find further information at: www.uni-stuttgart.de/en/study/international/visa/

Health insurance

EU students and students from countries with a social security agreement	Non-EU students
Students from EU countries need the European health insurance card (EHIC) for proof of health insurance. It is available at the health insurance company of your home country. Students from countries with a social security agreement e.g. Bosnia-Herzegovina, Serbia and Turkey need to bring a confirmation of their current health insurance.	Due to German regulations, students from non-EU countries under 30 years of age are required to purchase a student health insurance at a local insurance company in Stuttgart which amounts to approx. 120 EUR per month. Students who have a health insurance by their program or scholarship provider need to bring the policy.

Please note:
 The compulsory student health insurance comes into effect at the inception of the semester (April 1). If you arrive ahead of time we strongly recommend that you take out a travel health insurance in your home country to cover the period until April 1.

Non-EU citizens who are 30 years of age or older must take out a private insurance meeting German standards. All private health insurances in Germany usually exclude pre-existing chronic disease e.g. asthma, diabetes, stomach ulcer, chronic headaches (migraine etc.). It will be necessary that you purchase insurance from your home country that will cover up for it. Please contact the International Office for further information.

² Applicants from China, India, Vietnam and Mongolia need to have their academic documents certified by the APS office (<https://aps-india.de/>, <http://www.aps.org.cn>, <http://www.vietnam.diplo.de>, <http://www.ulan-bator.diplo.de/aps>)

Accommodation

The Studierendenwerk Stuttgart and the VSSW provide both student dorms in Stuttgart. Please apply online.

🔗 www.studierendenwerk-stuttgart.de/en/accommodation

🔗 <https://www.vssw.de/>

We strongly advise to apply for a dormitory room as soon as possible. Rooms are allocated on a first-come, first-served basis. The waiting period is currently approx. 6 -12 months.

There are only single rooms in mixed (male/female) student dormitories with shared kitchen and bathroom available.

Finding a room on the private housing market is possible but usually takes a long time and rooms are quite expensive.

Please note:

The rental period for Master's students in the Master's programs starts on April 1.

Neither the International Office nor your Master's program have any influence on the allocation of your dorm room.

Furthermore, there is no guarantee to get a room offer by the Studierendenwerk Stuttgart or the VSSW as the number of rooms is limited!

As soon as the Studierendenwerk Stuttgart or the VSSW has allocated the rooms (approx. four to six weeks prior to the reservation period), they will send you a room offer by e-mail. This offer includes the rental contract, your hirer code and the contact details of the person in charge of your dormitory. You will also receive instructions on how to accept your room offer so that your rental contract becomes effective.

In order for your rental contract to become effective, you must transfer a deposit of about EUR 700 to the bank account of the dormitory provider. Mind the deadline for the transfer to arrive in their account!

The EUR 700 deposit already includes part of the first month's rent while EUR 400 will be kept as deposit and will be reimbursed at the end of your stay in the dormitory if there are no complaints about the status of your room.

Should you come to Stuttgart at a time you cannot move into your dorm room immediately (e.g. weekend, public holiday, very early or late), we recommend you book a room in a youth hostel or a low-budget hotel well in advance.

Private/temporary accommodation

Private housing market

Unfortunately, the housing situation is difficult in Stuttgart. Be prepared to live in a temporary accommodation for several weeks during your room search before you find a long-term place to live. You can find many links and tips for private and low budget places here

🔗 <https://www.uni-stuttgart.de/en/study/living-in-stuttgart/housing/index.html>

Please note that it is absolutely necessary to book in advance, since hostels and low-budget hotels are quickly booked out at this time of the year!

Items of practical use

If you move into a student dorm of the Studierendenwerk Stuttgart or the VSSW, please remember that the first moving-in day is April 2 (Please note that you cannot move in on April 1 since it is a public holiday (Easter Monday)). You can get the dorm key only during the office hours of the caretaker [Hausmeister]. The office hours will be indicated in your housing information from the Studierendenwerk Stuttgart or the VSSW.

When you arrive in Stuttgart on a Saturday, Sunday or before your rental contract becomes effective, we suggest you stay at a youth hostel or a guest house for the first night(s). Make sure to book in advance.

☑ Make sure you have enough money available - e.g. for the semester contribution approx. EUR 170, the tuition fee for non-EU students EUR 1.500, your rent, the public transportation pass for about EUR 50 per month for the whole metropolitan area, other incidental costs such as food and drink EUR 300, compulsory broadcasting fee, health insurance.

☑ You will also need some small change (about EUR 5) for public transportation from the airport/train station to the Vaihingen campus or city center. Or you download the app to order a ticket by mobile phone:

🔗 <http://en.vvs.de/tickets/how-to-buy-a-ticket/>

☑ Do not forget to bring along clothing for rainy and cold weather.

☑ Glasses are very expensive in Germany. You might want to bring a second pair along.

☑ For all electrical appliances you will need a 220 volt adapter.

Please note:

Do not come to Stuttgart and expect to be able to finance your studies by working. The University of Stuttgart's English Master's programs are full-time study programs and the study load is very high.

Arrival and first steps:

We recommend you arrive in the week before the lectures start, thus from Tuesday, April 2, 2024.

If you move into a student dormitory:

2. Move into your dorm room and relax.

All students:

3. Go to the International Office at the IZ (Pfaffenwaldring 60, Campus Vaihingen).
